Jorge Alberto Rubio Bicentario Gran Reserva Malbec Roble 2019, Mendoza

Argentina makes all kinds of noise about high altitude malbec, but this beaut is from the eastern, lower altitude Mendoza vineyards near General Alvear southeast of Mendoza tells a different tale. It is a big, very ripe and soft edition packing rich, almost jammy mulberry fruit, fine herbs and violet, swaddled in generous cedary, spicy oak. It is absolutely delicious, almost velvety smooth and rich. Excellent focus and length here. Tasted April 2024
