Jorge Alberto Rubio Bicentenario Gran Reserva Malbec Roble 2019, Mendoza

Bicentenario is named for the bicentennial of the independence of Argentina and this malbec is as Argentinian as they get - rich, fleshy and bold, with good depth of flavour. Expressive with plenty of juiciness despite notable concentration on the palate. The wine feels light-footed, balanced, and with fruit elevated by oak as opposed to being stifled by it. Well-integrated alcohol is enveloped by the wealth of black fruit and the length is excellent. Best now to 2028. Tasted April 2024.
